AGENDA

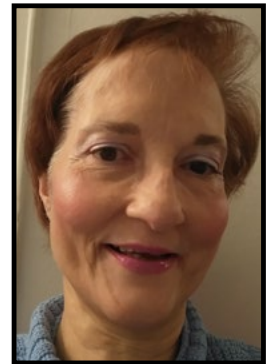

Accessible Voting 101

- What voting accessibility accommodations must be legally provided to people with different disabilities?
- What is a fair assessment of NYC's report card on voting accessibility?
- What are recent technological advances in voting accessibility accommodations?
- What can someone do if voting accessibility accommodations are denied to them or are offered/promised and not given to them?

Report back from May 19, 2024 NAMI WALK

Guest Speaker: Kathy Collins

Kathy Collins, a quadruple amputee who uses a wheelchair and, sometimes, prosthetic arms, is an attorney who retired from The Port Authority of New York and New Jersey after working there for thirty (30) years. She is on the board of Disabled In Action of Metropolitan New York, Inc., a co-coordinator for Downstate New York ADAPT, as well as a member of the Greater New York Council of the Blind, the Amputee Coalition of America and the League of Women Voters, New York City Chapter.
