GUEST SPEAKER

Judy Wessler

Health Care Activist, Educator, and Policy Maker

Judy Wessler, is a health care activist, educator, and policy maker. She was raised in NYC, and has received a B.A. in Psychology from Boston University and a Master of Public Health from Columbia University. Since the early 1970s she has been involved in health care activism, education, and policy making in NY. Wessler has been deeply involved in such issues as the role of public hospitals, Medicaid and managed care, hospital closings, women's and children's health, national health insurance, and the provision of health care to the underserved communities of NYC. Wessler has worked in health care advocacy and education for organizations such as MFY Legal Services, Community Action for Legal Services, and the Community Service Society. She served in the Manhattan Borough President's Office during the administration of Ruth Messinger, and later worked for the Children's Defense Fund, and the Commission on the Public's Health System. She has been the author, co-author, or editor of several publications including Health Advocates Manual, Medicaid in New York: Perceptions and Realities, Uninsured Children in New York, and The Human Cost of Efficiency: HHC in the Era of Budget Reductions.
