GUEST SPEAKERS

Parents to Improve School Transportation (P.I.S.T.)
pistnyc.org

Parents to Improve School Transportation (P.I.S.T.) is a NYC grassroots organization of students with disabilities, their parents, and disability justice and rights advocate allies, pushing for a School Bus Bill of Rights to give parents, disability advocates, and bus workers a direct voice in transit and education policies. Local 1180 was the second union to endorse P.I.S.T.'s School Bus Bill of Rights.

Representatives of Nonviolent Medicaid Army (NVMA)
nonviolentmedicaidarmy.org

The Nonviolent Medicaid Army (NVMA) is a national growing, politically independent organization of the poor and dispossessed, united across identities, regions, races, and issues, modeled after MLK's 'nonviolent army of the poor' from the first Poor People's Campaign of 1968. The NVMA self-identifies as a network of organizations and committees that understand health care to be a strategic front of struggle to unite the working class. On Sept. 19, 2026, the NVMA organized actions in 16 states, including NYC, to protest against the massive NYS July 1, 2026, Medicaid cuts.
