GUEST SPEAKER

Cynthia Cordero

Biography in Law Enforcement, Ministry, & Advocacy

Cynthia Cordero is first a proud mom of two and grandmother. A 911 WTC responder and retired NYPD Detective, she was deemed a specialist in her assignment with Youth and Community. She now works under contract to the US Marshal Service in the Southern District NY Court of Appeals as a Court Security Officer and made her mark as the first female training officer.

Cynthia holds a Master's in Ministry and Criminal Justice and received an Honorary Doctorate from CICA University and Seminary. Rev. Dr. Cynthia is a Chaplain Major and Peace Ambassador to the UN for Word Of Life Ministries International. She is a Lead Coach on the Miss Corporate America team. Her commitment to pull others out of the darkness she has known herself led to her certification in the Conquer Suicide Awareness and Intervention Training Program for Law Enforcement.

Cynthia is trained and certified as a Not On My Watch advocate against domestic violence and human trafficking. Dr. Cee Cee as she is affectionately called is the creator of Emerge, co-author on other book projects, vocalist for the Victim to Victory documentary and is the voice of the Life with Dr. Cee Cee Podcast Show.
